

February 5, 2019: Open access, scientific publishing and Plan S

- 9h30-10h00 Registration and welcome coffee
- 10h00-10h35 General introduction : Open science and scientific publishing: context and major issues
Pr. Jean-Pierre Finance, Chairman of the EUA Open Science Working Group, former President of Henri Poincaré University
- 10h35- 11h10 cOAlition S : genesis, principles and next steps
Dr. Stephan Kuster, Secretary general of Science Europe
- 11h10-12H10 Roundtable n°1: Towards the implementation of plan S
Dr. Lidia Borrell-Damian, Director Research and Innovation, EUA
Dr. Stephan Kuster, Secretary general of Science Europe
Dr. Angela Holzer, Programme Officer ,Scientific library services and information systems, DFG
French National Agency for Research (to be confirmed)
Moderator : Pr. Jean-Pierre Finance, Chairman of the EUA Open Science Working Group, former President of Henri Poincaré University
- 12h10-12h45 Open access in France : the National Open Science Plan and policies of the French ministry for higher learning, research and innovation on Open Access and scientific publishing
Mr. Marin Dacos, Open Science Advisor to the MESRI, founder of OpenEdition
- 12h45-13h40 Lunch break
- 13h40-14h15 The EU Open Access policies : current initiatives and next steps
Ms. Alea López de San Román, Policy Officer, DG RTD B2 , European Commission
- 14h15-16h15 Roundtable n°2: Open access policies: towards a new European model for scientific publishing?
- Dr. Mark Patterson, Executive director of eLife
- Mr. Jean-Marc Quilbé, President of EDP Sciences
- RELX group representative (to be confirmed)
- Moderator: Pr. Bernard Rentier, Vice-President of the Belgian federal science policy council, ex-rector of the University of Liège.
- 16h15 – 16h35 Conclusion and cloture
Pr. Bernard Rentier, Vice-President of the Belgian federal science policy council, ex-rector of the University of Liège, Pr. Jean-Pierre Finance, Chairman of the EUA Open Science Working Group, former President of Henri Poincaré University